

Agreement to Arbitrate Dispute

The Parties agreed, within the signed contract, to submit to binding Arbitration by, and under Procedure Rules for Dispute Settlement for the Trade in Seeds for Sowing Purposes and for Management of Intellectual Property of the International Seed Federation, (ISF), the following matters in dispute: _____

(Attach Documents as Necessary)

The Parties, Arbitrators and the Canadian Seed Trade Association, (CSTA) agree to the confidentiality provisions of the Arbitration Procedure Rules. The Parties agree to the payment of fees as outlined in the Fee Schedule.

The parties acknowledge that the Arbitrator(s) has no duty to protect the Parties' interests or provide them with information about their legal rights. The Parties should consult an attorney if they are uncertain of the rights.

The Parties agree to hold harmless the CSTA from any and all causes of action, claims, liability damages and costs, including attorney fees, which arise out of or relate to the actual or alleged acts, errors and omissions from this dispute.
